

HOME HEALTH CARE AGENCIES

Non-Medical Home Health Care:

Non-medical services offer assistance with chores, errands, house-cleaning and activities of daily living such as bathing, eating, hygiene, dressing and ambulation. Personal care assistants without professional medical training may provide these services.

Medical Home Health Care:

Skilled services for older and disabled adults with care provided by licensed nurses, certified nurse assistants and licensed therapists. Home health aides may also provide assistance with activities of daily living when relevant to an illness or injury.

In Colorado, home care agencies are required to be licensed. The Colorado Department of Public Health & Environment is responsible for the licensing and monitoring of both medical and non-medical home care agencies. They can be reached at (303) 692-2910 or (800) 842-8826.
